The pursuit of equitable or injunctive relief shall not be a waiver of the duty of the Parties to pursue any remedy for monetary damages through the arbitration described in this Section.

17. CONFIDENTIALITY

1. This Agreement and all information exchanged between the Parties under this Agreement or during the negotiations preceding this Agreement is confidential to them and may not be disclosed to any third party. Except with the prior written consent of the other Party, each Party shall hold in strictest confidence and take all necessary precautions to secure any Confidential Information of the other Party. Disclosure of such information shall be restricted solely to employees, agents, consultants and representatives on a strict need-to-know basis who have been advised of their obligation with respect to Confidential Information and have agreed to such obligation. The term "Confidential Information" shall mean all non-public information that this Agreement or the disclosing Party designates as being confidential, or which, under the circumstances of disclosure ought to be treated as confidential. "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation, the existence and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, information relating to the financial and accounting books and records, marketing or promotion of any product or services, business policies or practices, customers, potential customers or, documents, or information received from others that a Party is obligated to treat as confidential. If a Party has any questions as to what comprises such Confidential Information, that Party shall consult with the other Party. "Confidential Information" shall not include information that was known to a Party prior to the other Party's disclosure, or information that becomes publicly available through no fault of the Party.

Principal

2. The obligations of confidentiality do not extend to information which:
  - i. is disclosed to employees, legal advisers, auditors and other consultants of a Party or its related bodies corporate, requiring the information; or
  - ii. is disclosed with the consent of the Party who supplied the information; or
  - iii. is, at the date this Agreement is entered into, lawfully in the possession of the recipient of the information through sources other than the Party who supplied the information; or
  - iv. is required by law, regulation, governmental or judicial order to be disclosed; or
  - v. is generally and publicly available, other than as a result of breach of confidence by the Person receiving the information.
3. To the extent any Party is under an obligation to disclose information to any governmental authorities, it shall promptly inform the other Party of such obligation (prior to making the disclosure, if possible and practicable) and shall afford the other Party the ability to take protective measures, if need be, to safeguard their own legitimate interests. In case there is any governmental agency or instrumentality or Court order requiring the COLLEGE to part with any of such information, the COLLEGE, its agent or subcontractor, as the case may be, shall provide an express notice of twenty four hours to the Company before complying with any such requirements and in such eventuality of compliance, they shall also be required to observe strict diligence in order to make sure that breach of Company and business confidentiality with the Company can be limited to the minimum extent possible.

18. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Force Majeure

Neither party shall be in default of this Agreement or liable to the other party for any delay or default in performance where occasioned by any cause of any kind or extent beyond its control, including but not limited to, armed conflict or economic dislocation resulting therefrom; embargoes; shortages or labor, raw materials, production facilities or transportation; labor difficulties; civil disorders of any kind; action of any civil or military authorities (including priorities and allocations); fires; floods; telecommunication failures; Internet slow-downs; and accidents. The dates on which the obligations of a party are to be fulfilled shall be extended for a period equal to the time lost by reason of any delay arising directly or indirectly from:

2. Severance:

The validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired if any provision of this Agreement is rendered void, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any law.

Should any provision of this Agreement be or become ineffective for reasons beyond the control of the Parties, the Parties shall use reasonable endeavors to agree upon a new provision which shall as nearly as possible have the same commercial effect as the ineffective provision.

Principal
S.K.P. College, Kamptee

3. No Waiver:

Neither the waiver of any provision of this Agreement nor consent to any departure from it by any party shall be effective unless it is in writing. A waiver or consent shall be effective only for the purpose for which it is given. No default or delay on the part of any Party in exercising any rights, powers or privileges operates as a waiver of any right, nor does a single or partial exercise of a right preclude any exercise of other rights, powers or privileges.

4. Entire Agreement:

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matters of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, with respect to the subject matter hereof except as otherwise expressly provided herein.

5. Amendments:

No modification, amendment or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing specifically referring to this Agreement and duly signed by each of the Parties.

6. No Partnership:

Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between the Parties or constitute either Party the agent of the other for any purpose other than those agreed on in this Agreement.

7. Counterparts:

This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the day year first above written:
